SEASONED AEC EXECUTIVE JOINS SHAREPOINT360 TEAM

Scott Bartlett Joins Business Productivity Solutions Provider to Lead Mobilize360

San Diego – June, 7, 2010 – SharePoint360, the premier provider of business productivity consulting and hosting solutions, today announces Scott Bartlett as the newest member of the SharePoint360 team. Previously with Microsoft, Bartlett brings a wealth of experience marketing GIS, GPS, mapping, geospatial, remote sensing and surveying hardware and software technologies. As part of SharePoint360's Delivery Team, Scott will leverage his Architecture, Engineering and Construction (AEC) background in product and project management to lead the Mobilize360 project as well as strategically map out an end-to-end technology roadmap.

"Sharepoint360 is experiencing an exciting time in both our Company's progress and technology development," said Paul West, co-founder and principal of SharePoint360. "Scott's talent and background in AEC made him a natural choice to help lead SharePoint360 into the future."

As an industry market development manager at Microsoft, Scott developed new business opportunities with customers in the AEC and Commercial Real Estate verticals. Prior to his time with Microsoft, Bartlett held management positions at Trimble Navigation LTD, Leica Geosystems AG, Autodesk and Silicon Graphics, Inc.

"I'm approaching my new role at SharePoint360 with the idea that our revamped technology roadmap will allow companies to break down walls, so to speak, in order to construct buildings," said Bartlett. "I'm thrilled to be a contributor to SharePoint360's forward thinking culture."

Bartlett holds a Bachelor of Science degree in Geology from Utah State University, where he graduated as Valedictorian. Bartlett currently resides in Longmont, CO in Boulder County.
